

Ohio Digs Out Of Big Snow

SCRAPE, SCRAPE—John Strawser, an employee of Caddy Miller's Shop on W. Main St., attempts to keep the snow and ice from building up in front of the store. The snow and sleet, which began early Monday morning, continued until about 11 a.m. in downtown Circleville, and kept people like Strawser busy trying to keep the sidewalks safe for pedestrians.

The first big snow storm of the season caught Circleville and Pickaway County motorists unprepared although forewarned by the Weather Bureau.

The Pickaway County Sheriff's Department reported investigating at least 19 snow-related accidents, many of them occurring today. The Ohio State Highway Patrol also reported a number of minor accidents as a result of the snow and numerous cars skidded into ditches along the more heavily traveled thoroughfares.

The snow-covered roads forced the cancellation of all classes in the Logan Elm School District which has some exceptionally hilly bus routes in Hocking County and parts of Salt Creek Twp.

Westfall High School opened this morning but school officials in the district decided to cancel the junior high school session in the afternoon.

At Teays Valley and Circleville, school was in session as usual. The local weather observing station at the Circleville Water Plant reported the snow was to diminish by afternoon.

No roads were closed by city or county highway officials and all available snow plows were in operation.

Sections of northern Ohio were isolated Sunday by an erratic snowstorm that dealt heavy blows to some areas while virtually passing over others.

More than a foot of snow fell on Toledo and Akron, blocking highways and causing power outages. But Sandusky, east of Toledo, escaped the brunt of the storm and Youngstown reported only an inch of snow on the ground.

All highways in and out of Toledo were clogged by a 14-inch snowfall and bus and airline service was canceled there, leaving hundreds of travelers stranded.

Both U.S. 23 and Interstate 75 were closed at Toledo. The Ohio Turnpike remained open, but traffic ground to a crawl near Toledo.

Hotels and motels in Toledo and Bowling Green were jammed with stranded motorists and the American Red Cross set up emergency shelters to accommodate travelers.

The only highways open from Ohio to Michigan were those in Williams County, in the extreme northwestern corner of the state, according to the state highway patrol.

Akron had about a foot of snow on the ground and most roads in Summit and Portage counties were either closed or nearly impassable.

Numerous school closings were reported throughout the hard-hit areas. Classes also were canceled today at the University of Toledo, Bowling Green State University and Kent State University.

There also were numerous power outages as the clinging wet snow snapped power lines.

A broken pipeline in Toledo was blamed for a fire that burned a branch library to the ground. Damage was estimated at $1 million.

Cleveland had about six inches of snow. Most streets and highways there were open, but I-271 was closed from the turnpike south.

The Cleveland-Hopkins International Airport remained open, although airlines canceled some flights.

One death was attributed to the weather in Cleveland. Municipal Court Judge Joseph Sterns, 72, collapsed and died while shoveling snow.

Sunday's 10-race card at Thistledown Race Track in Cleveland was canceled because of the snow, and Sunday night's World Hockey Association game there was postponed because the Detroit team was unable to fly out of the Michigan city.

Elsewhere in the state, Zanesville reported eight inches on the ground, Dayton seven inches, Columbus three inches and Marietta and Cincinnati, two inches.

At the Kings Island amusement park outside Cincinnati, a $250,000 inflated air theater collapsed from the weight of the heavy wet snow. It was empty at the time.

Heavy snows, high winds and freezing temperatures swept across the eastern half of the nation today following a holiday weekend of weather-related accidents and deaths.

A Trans World Airlines jet crashed in Virginia in a driving rain and winds gusting to 50 miles an hour. All 92 persons aboard were killed.

A chartered plane en route to Buffalo, N.Y., to pick up the Baltimore Colts football team crashed near Stony Point, N.Y., during a storm. Three crewmen died. No passengers were aboard.

Two Marines and a child were killed in a boating accident Sunday as gale-force winds lashed the North Carolina coast.

A Canadian freighter with a cargo of steel, tossed about by 14-foot waves on Lake Michigan off Milwaukee, Wis., sank in the early hours Sunday. All 15 crewmen were rescued.

Sugar Paces Rise In Nation's Food Costs

By LOUISE COOK

Associated Press Writer

Soaring sugar prices, already the target of government probes and consumer boycotts, boosted the price of the family grocery bill during November, an Associated Press marketbasket survey shows.

Shoppers who avoided buying sugar, however, found sales on meat and eggs helped stretch the budget at the supermarket.

The AP drew up a random list of 15 commonly purchased food and nonfood items, checked the prices on March 1, 1973 at a supermarket in each of 13 cities and has rechecked at the beginning of each succeeding month.

The latest survey showed the bill was up during November in every city except Dallas, where sugar was unavailable and therefore did not boost the total as it did elsewhere.

The average November increase in the 12 cities where the bill went up was 6 per cent. If sugar was removed from the total, however, the rise was only seven-tenths of one per cent. Not counting sugar, the bill declined in six of the 12 cities and stayed the same in one.

During October, the AP marketbasket bill was up in seven cities, down in four and unchanged in two.

A comparison of current prices with those at the beginning of the year showed the marketbasket bill up in every city, with an average increase of 20 per cent. Again, much of the increase was due to disproportionately large boosts in the cost of sugar which more than tripled in some areas as worldwide demand shot up.

Government authorities have predicted that food prices overall will rise about 15 or 16 per cent this year. The Council on Wage and Price Stability held hearings in Washington, D.C., last week to investigate sugar prices and a house subcommittee plans another probe this week.

Farmers, refiners and retailers repeatedly have denied that they are taking advantage of consumers by charging high prices for sugar. Farmers conceded they're getting more money—raw sugar is selling for about 60 cents a pound, about five times what it was a year ago—but they argue that their costs for things like fuel and fertilizer have risen sharply. They also contend that they need the profits on sugar to make up for losses on other farm items like cattle.

Some consumers have solved the problem by simply eliminating sugar from their diets.

There were scattered sales, generally reflecting lower prices paid to farmers in recent months. The price of a pound of chopped chuck, for example, was down in six cities, unchanged in four and up in only three. Eggs went down in four cities, were unchanged in three and went up in six.

The day of the week on which the check was made varied depending on the month. Standard brands and sizes were used when available. If the requested size and brand was not available on March 1, 1973, a comparable substitute was selected. Items temporarily out of stock on one of the survey dates being compared were not included in the over-all total.

The latest government marketbasket showed that during October, the cost of a year's supply of groceries rose $4 to another record high.

The items on the AP checklist were: chopped chuck, center cut pork chops, frozen orange juice concentrate, coffee, paper towels, butter, Grade-A medium white eggs, creamy peanut butter, laundry detergent, fabric softener, tomato sauce, chocolate chip cookies, milk, all-beef frankfurters and granulated sugar.

The cities checked were: Albuquerque, Atlanta, Ga., Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Detroit, Los Angeles, Miami, New York, Philadelphia, Providence, Salt Lake City and Seattle.

Miners Vote On Contract

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) — The rank-and-file members of the United Mine Workers union are voting for the first time in the union's 84 year history today on whether to accept a coal contract negotiated by their leaders.

Three union locals in Pennsylvania approved the pact Sunday by a 422-313 margin. The locals included Local 1248 at western Pennsylvania's largest mine — U.S. Steel's Maple Creek mine in Washington County — where it passed 238-223.

Ex-president Nick Devine said he was surprised the contract was passed the Local 1248. "You can't get a true picture by talking to the people," he said. "I sure didn't think this local would go for it."

The vote by rank-and-file members is part of a pledge made by UMW President Arnold Miller when his reform organization wrested control of the 120,000-member union from former President W.A. "Tony" Boyle two years ago.

Miller said he would return control of the union to the rank-and-file. He devised an elaborate scheme in which each of the active union members would receive a copy of the proposed new contract and a secret ballot to vote on it.

The tentative agreement with the Bituminous Coal Operators Association was approved last week by the union's 38-member bargaining council and UMW officials have spent the rest of the week explaining the terms of the proposal.

Miller and his lieutenants have spent the weekend stumping troublesome areas of the coalfields in an effort to explain the contract. Miller has predicted 60 per cent approval.

The proposal calls for a 64 per cent increase in wage and benefits over a three-year period and includes numerous provisions on safety in the mines, an item Miller said was his number one priority in the negotiations.

Mr. Ford said he was "greatly encouraged to learn that you and many others of your generation love America so much that you are eager to become involved wherever you are needed. Such commitment and enthusiasm can only benefit our country, and I am pleased to have your suggestions."

KIWANIANS will be participating in a door-to-door campaign, beginning 6:30 p.m. tonight in the annual Charity Newsies Drive ... Circleville residents wishing to receive the paper or donate to the club are encouraged to turn on their porch lights.

Rockefellers Seen Economic Giants

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fifteen members of the Rockefeller family are directors of 40 corporations which have total assets of $70 billion, according to a report submitted to Congress.

The boards which the Rockefellers belong to have interlocking directorates with 91 major U.S. corporations having combined assets of $640 billion, the study said.

The study was made by G. William Domhoff, a psychology professor at the University of California, Santa Cruz, and Charles L. Schwartz, a physics professor at the University of California, Berkeley.

They sent the report to the House Judiciary Committee and suggested it be used as the basis for questioning witnesses in the hearings on Nelson A. Rockefeller's nomination to be vice president.

At the invitation of Chairman Peter Rodino, D-N.J., the two professors are scheduled to testify before the panel tonight when hearings on the nomination resume.

In his testimony Nov. 21 Rockefeller dismissed the study as the work of academics unqualified in the field of economics. He has called the idea that he and his family exert any control over the economy "a myth."

Domhoff is the author of several books on America's powerful families. Schwartz says he became interested in the study when he noted Rockefeller representatives on the boards of several corporations involved in technology while he was studying the relationship between science and business.

Schwartz says among the major corporations having Rockefeller family representatives on their boards are Chase Manhattan Bank, Chrysler Corp., I.B.M., American Motors, Eastern Airlines, S.S. Kresge, R.H. Macy and Bendix.

"This picture of Rockefeller family's active presence in the world of big business is quite different from that which is most commonly projected—namely that brother David is the chairman of the Chase Manhattan Bank and the other brothers have their own hobbies, rather unconnected to the area of high finance," says Schwartz.

Domhoff said the committee, besides examining the family's corporate holdings, should try to learn about the investments of such non-profit family-financed organizations as Rockefeller University and Colonial Williamsburg. Trust funds controlled by the family also should be investigated, he said. He conceded this could be difficult.

UPPERVILLE, Va. (AP) — Heavy snow hampered searchers resuming their grim hunt today for the bodies of 92 persons killed when a Trans World Airlines 727 slammed into an Appalachian foothill Sunday.

The chief investigator for the National Transportation Safety Board, Rudolf Kapustin, said 26 bodies were recovered from the crash site near here when searchers quit at 10 p.m. Sunday night.

Reporters on the scene said searchers found parts of 75 bodies early this morning and the cockpit flight recorder.

The instrument will tell investigators the plane's position moments before the crash and help determine the cause of the disaster.

The TWA jetliner crashed into the top of the 1,754-foot-high peak during a wind-driven rain storm Sunday morning, killing all aboard.

The plane, TWA flight 514 bound for Washington from Indianapolis, Ind., and Columbus, Ohio, sheared off tree tops and slammed into a 10-foot-high rocky ledge near a top-secret government installation.

The three-jet plane disintegrated on impact, strewn bodies and burning wreckage over a wide area on the slope of Mt. Weather, a foothill of the Blue Ridge Mountains. The plane's tail section was found 100 yards below the summit.

John H. Reed, chairman of the National Transportation Safety Board, said it was impossible to say immediately what caused the crash.

Kapustin said the board hoped to have further information by tonight. He said investigators would meet at that time to compare their findings and to discuss which areas need to be probed.

TWA officials said relatives of the 85 passengers and seven crew members would be taken by bus today to a temporary morgue near the crash site to identify the remains.

The Mt. Weather crash was followed Sunday by the crash of a Northwest Orient Airlines 727 charter jet near Stony Point, N.Y., about 20 miles northwest of New York City. The plane carried three crewmen and no passengers and was on its way to Buffalo, N.Y., to pick up the Baltimore Colts football team. State police said there was no evidence of survivors.

Another airplane was reported down in Costa Rica where searchers combed a mountainous area for a Honduran Air Force cargo plane carrying four persons. The craft was reported missing Friday night.

The Mt. Weather search was hampered by driving rain, fog and winds gusting up to 40-50 miles an hour, the same weather conditions that prevailed in the area when the jet crashed at 11:10 a.m. EST.

The flight had been scheduled to land at 10:23 a.m. EST at Washington National Airport, directly across the Potomac River from Washington, when air-traffic controllers diverted it to Dulles International, about 25 miles northwest.

The diversion was ordered because Dulles had runways sited in various directions. National only has north-south runways.

The manager of Dulles, Dexter Davis, said weather conditions there were highly unusual. "In the six years I've been here, a crosswind like this hasn't happened," he said.

The Federal Aviation Administration said there had been no unusual communications between the plane's crew and airtraffic controllers, "just the routine flight conversation."

When the Dulles tower lost radar contact with the plane about 11:10 a.m. EST local authorities were notified to begin a search. Two state troopers found the wreckage almost immediately.

The plane sheared off tree tops as it plunged into the west side of the mountain, leading one person at the scene to compare it to the work of a giant lawnmower in the sky.

The plane then struck a rocky outcropping, caught fire, disintegrated and sped over an area about the size of two football fields. The main wreckage cut a swath 60 to 70 yards wide for about a quarter of a mile.

Loudoun County Medical Examiner George Hocker, describing the difficulty of finding and identifying the victims, said, "For about half of the bodies, you can recognize that it is a human." He said the rest of the bodies were dismembered.

Near the crash site is a closely-guarded 85-acre government installation that houses an underground complex to serve as headquarters for the President and other officials in case of a disaster in Washington.

The crash severed the main underground telephone line into the complex. Government personnel on duty there at the time aided in the initial search efforts.

The flight originated in Indianapolis, and about 46 passengers boarded at Columbus, according to a TWA spokesman.

The crash was the first fatal air mishap involving Dulles airport, according to a NTBS spokesman.

It also was the first to involve a commercial airliner in the Washington-Baltimore area since 1963 when 81 persons were killed in the crash of a Pan American jet near Elkton, Md.

15 Rescued As Lakes Ship Sinks

MILWAUKEE (AP) — It had all the makings of a major marine disaster.

A third of the 200-foot freighter was awash, listing dangerously in predawn darkness on storm-swept Lake Michigan with all 15 crew members gathered at the rail on the ship's high side.

When the six-hour ordeal ended early Sunday, the Canadian ship Jennifer lay 75 fathoms down. But the crew had scrambled to safety, four aboard a Coast Guard helicopter and the other 11 aboard a lifeboat and rubber raft.

"All the people were scrambling," said Lt. Cmdr. Robin F. Krause, 33, of Buffalo Grove, Ill., a pilot aboard the Coast Guard rescue helicopter. "You could tell in their eyes that everyone was pretty scared. They had to be."

"I've never really seen a ship in that bad of shape before when the seas were that rough."

The ocean-going ship was pitching in waves of 12 to 14 feet and winds up to 40 knots when the helicopter arrived on the scene. The temperature was about 30 degrees.

His choppy carried four crewmen to safety. The other 11 abandoned ship and were rescued by a British freighter one hour later, just seven minutes before the Jennifer went down about 20 miles northeast of Milwaukee. No injuries were reported.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market seemed to grow uneasy over the prospects for an impending end to the coal strike today and declined steadily and sharply in light trading.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was down 10.09 at 608.59, while losers outdistanced gainers by more than 3 to 1 on the New York Stock Exchange.

In addition to apprehension over whether striking coal miners would ratify a new contract in a vote that began today, analysts noted some disappointment among investors at least week's upturn in short-term interest rates.

Matsumita Electrical Industrial, the Big Board volume leader, slipped 1/8 to 12 1/2 in a 256,000-share block trade.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market-value index dropped .41 to 63.34.

The Big Board's composite common-stock index lost .55 to 36.58.

Pacific Coast Properties, the Amex' most-active issue, was down 1-1/4 to 1/8.

Weekend Accidents Injure 8 Persons

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies investigated 23 accidents since 6 p.m. Saturday, with all but four attributed to the snow-covered highways.

Forty-eight-year-old William Butcher, 507 S. Scioto St., was cited, by Deputy Lawrence Holt for driving while intoxicated, when he was involved in a single-car accident, 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

Butcher, traveling south on the Circleville-Commercial Point Road, failed to negotiate a curve and drove off the right side of the road. The vehicle went through a fence before coming to rest in a field.

Deputy Billy Huffman cited Ron David Smith, 16, Route 1, Ashville, for driving without an operator's license, when he was involved in a single-car accident, 9 p.m. Saturday.

Traveling north on the Circleville-Groveport Road, Smith lost control of the auto going off the right side of the road striking two end posts.

The vehicle came to rest rolling onto its side.

Smith and a passenger, Randall L. Reynolds, 18, Route 1, Ashville, were both treated and released at Berger Hospital for minor injuries.

Seventeen-year-old Larry Keith Pennington, Route 3, Mt. Sterling, was cited, by Deputy J. Phillip Brown, when he was involved in a two-car collision, 12:05 p.m. Sunday.

Pennington, eastbound on Route 56, went left of center striking a west-bound auto driven by William E. Catron, 54, North Manchester, Ind.

Impact of the collision sent the Catron vehicle into a culvert.

Catron and a passenger, Mildred Catron, 46, were referred to a doctor for minor injuries.

Susan M. Allman, 18, Sewicley, Pa., was treated and released at Berger Hospital for minor injuries received in a two-car accident, 4:13 p.m. Sunday, investigated by Deputy Billy Huffman.

Ms. Allman, was westbound on the Circleville-Tarleton Road, when she stopped at the Circleville-Tarleton-Kingston Pike intersection.

Proceeding through the intersection, Ms. Allman pulled into the path of a southbound vehicle, driven by Thomas E. Sowards, 24, Route 1, Laurelville.

Timothy A. Vandagriff, 23, Adelphi, passenger in the Sowards vehicle, was also treated and released at the hospital for minor injuries.

No citation was issued.

Two Ashville teen-agers were injured in a single-car accident, investigated by Deputy Bill Huffman, 7:10 p.m. Sunday.

Kathryn R. Williamson, 16, Route 2, Ashville, was northbound on the Gibson-Blacker Road when she lost control of the auto on the snow covered highway.

The auto traveled off the right berm of the road striking a telephone pole.

Ms. Williamson was treated at Mercy Hospital, Columbus, for a broken nose, and a passenger, Danny R. Schooley, 15, Route 2, Ashville, for minor lacerations.

No citation was issued.

Fireman Scheduled For Hip Surgery

Dale Edwards, the Circleville firefighter injured in the Nov. 23 blaze that destroyed Pettis, The Coffee Shop and Brown's Office Equipment, is scheduled to undergo surgery Wednesday.

The surgery is to repair a shattered hip joint. A patient in Doctors Hospital, Columbus, he hopes to be home in time for Christmas but has been told his injury may take up to six months to heal completely.

Edwards sustained a dislocated hip, shattered joint and lower back injuries when the south wall of Pettit's building fell on him.

Concerned about criticism stemming from the fire directed at the members of the Circleville Fire Department, Edwards said it was unjustified.

He stated that the department was actually undermanned on that date because Lt. Mike Brown was on vacation. There were three firemen and a lieutenant on duty.

According to Edwards, there was too long a delay until off-duty members of the fire department were called. He said he was not called until nearly 6 a.m., about 45 minutes after the fire was discovered.

Edwards also noted that rules of the fire department require that a man stay at the department at all times. Because of this, one of the firemen had to leave the scene and return to the firehouse to get the ladder truck after the decision was reached to have both trucks at the scene.

He says members of the department have urged fire chief Bernard Wolfe to permit both trucks and all the on duty members to go immediately to fires in the downtown area.

"A few minutes can mean a big difference in the size of the fire," Edwards stated. "All of the off duty men should have been called without hesitation but the firemen do not have the authority to call in the extra help without the fire chief's okay because of the overtime pay involved."

Edwards said the errors of judgement, if any, were not the fault of the firemen or the lieutenant on duty.

Pioneer Spacecraft Races To Jupiter

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif. (AP) — Pioneer 11, picking up speed at a rate of 300 miles per hour every hour, raced today to within a half million miles of Jupiter and a perilous climax of its 620-million-mile voyage.

The 570-pound spacecraft will be battered by intense radiation when it whirs past the giant planet only 26,600 miles from its cloudtops at 9:22 p.m. PST tonight.

The radiation could damage the craft's delicate instruments. But scientists believe the 107,000 m.p.h. it will reach when it's closest to the planet—faster than any manmade object has ever flown—will save it from serious damage by limiting the length of its exposure.

On Sunday, the spacecraft took 14 pictures of Jupiter and crossed the orbit of Callisto, the one of the planet's four large moons thought most likely for a manned landing because it receives the least radiation.

Travelling at more than 40,000 m.p.h., the spacecraft was to cross the orbit of another satellite, Ganymede, today. It also will cross the orbit of the moon Europa and enter Jupiter's radiation belt today. Tonight it will zoom past the orbits of Io and a lesser moon, Amalthea, and then make its closest approach.

Jupiter, a gigantic ball of liquid hydrogen and gases, will spew deadly electrons and protons at the vehicle, perhaps devastating its instruments and spoiling plans for a 1979 rendezvous with Saturn.

But scientists believed the spacecraft would survive and keep streaming back information from which they can unlock secrets of the universe and perhaps even learn clues to the origin of life itself.

Dr. Keith Kvenvolden of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Ames Research Center, which controls Pioneer 11, said Sunday that greater knowledge of Jupiter could lead to a better understanding of the origin of life on earth because "Jupiter is like our planet in its first billion years."

Kvenvolden didn't rule out the possibility of life on Jupiter.

"A living organism, however, would be quite different from anything we know on earth," he said. "It would have to be an organism that just floats there."

Pioneer 11 will approach from the south of Jupiter, shoot through its dangerous radiation belt, make a corkscrew path up the planet and depart four hours later from a high northern region.

The trip will give scientists their best pictures yet of Jupiter and its great red spot, believed to be a centuries-old hurricane, and the first pictures of its dark, mysterious polar regions.

Any uncertainty about Pioneer 11's survival rests on what damage protons may do, said Dr. John Wolfe, project scientist at Ames.

Ford Slates Televised News Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford today holds his first nationally broadcast news conference since returning from the Soviet Union with a tentative nuclear arms agreement.

The meeting with reporters raises an opportunity for Ford to give the public the first specific details of the agreement he worked out in Vladivostok with Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev.

The agreement is understood to set a ceiling of 1,200 to 1,300 on the number of missiles that can carry multiple warheads, but it reportedly sets no restrictions on the "throw weight" or lifting power of missiles.

Press Secretary Ron Nessen said Ford would be willing to discuss details of the arms agreement if a written communication is received from the Russians setting forth specifics on the tentative agreement. The President returned last week with what was described as a verbal understanding with the Soviets.

In preparation for the news conference, Ford was to be briefed by Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, who traveled to Peking after the Russian talks and returned to Washington over the weekend. The Peking visit produced an announcement that Ford would visit China sometime next year.

The news conference was set for 7:30 p.m. EST in the auditorium of the old Executive Office Building next door to the White House.

With the administration now conceding that the economy is in a recession, Ford also is expected to face questions on whether he has any new plans to fight inflation and cope with economic slump.

On the eve of the news conference, the President worked in his office for about three hours Sunday and met with staff chief Donald Rumsfeld.

Shore Duty Looms For Gal Sailors

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy's first seagoing women sailors apparently will be beached next year because the Navy plans to take the hospital ship Sanctuary out of commission, probably by spring.

Officials say there is no other active Navy ship to which women can be assigned under the law.

Acknowledging that the Navy plans to retire the Sanctuary, the Pentagon said the move stems from "budgetary reasons." The move also raises the question whether the Navy intends to carry out its plan to station an aircraft carrier in Greece.

Navy officials stressed they are far from disappointed with the performance of women who have served on the crew of the hospital ship since the pilot program was started two years ago.

They said no major problems developed while as many as 69 women officers and enlisted personnel lived and worked among more than 400 males aboard the ship.

At one point last year, Navy sources said there had been several shipboard romances and one possible wedding was budding between a radiowoman and a machinist's mate.

Two Teenage Girls Injured

State Highway Patrolman Ron Lewis reported this morning two teenage girls were injured in a one-car accident at approximately 8:30 a.m. The car in which they were traveling was completely demolished.

Beverly Williamson, 16, Ashville, was driving eastbound on the Harrisburg-Fairfield Road when she ran off the right side of the roadway and hit a tree head-on.

A passenger in Miss Williamson's car, Linda Clark, 18, Route 1, Ashville, suffered multiple bruises and abrasions.

Miss Williamson also sustained cuts, abrasions and bruises in the mishap.

Both girls were taken to Berger Hospital by the Harrison Twp. Emergency Squad where they were treated and released.

Ptl. Lewis said he had made no citations but he believed the Williamson girl was driving much too fast for the highway conditions. He also reported that neither of the two girls were wearing seatbelts at the time of the crash.

Solons Missed Fatal Flight

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Trans World Airlines flight 514 had come to be known as the "congressional milk run" because it was used so often by Indiana's congressmen on return trips to Washington.

When word was first received Sunday that the TWA 727 had crashed near Upperville, Va., it was feared that some prominent Hoosier politicians and their aides might have gone down with it.

Open Letter

Dear Friends,
It deserves repeating that Social Security benefits, whether for lump-sum death benefits or other payments to survivors, are never paid automatically. Proper application must be made to the local Social Security field office in order to secure payment of benefits. We are glad to assist in this matter so that benefit payments to survivors are not lost thru ignorance or neglect.

Respectfully,

A Page Of Opinion

Once Mighty Coin

A vice president of the United States, Tom Marshall, once said, "What this country needs is a good five-cent cigar." If he were making that statement now, it would go something like this, "What this country needs is a good five-cent cigar, and a good nickel to buy it with."

What has happened to the purchasing power of the nickel since Marshall was vice president many persons wouldn't believe. When he made his famous remark, bread was five cents a loaf, a daily newspaper most places was one cent.

Nearly everywhere, a nickel got one into a movie house. It would pay for a trolley ride or a shoe shine. It would buy a hot dog.

When Marshall made his remark about a nickel cigar, he was referring to a coin with real purchasing power, not something good only to be used in helping to pay the sales tax.

There was no sales tax. There were few taxes of any kind.

Good Zoos Today

ON THE LINE
By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — If you're taking your kid to a zoo today, you should know this much about the animal prison, and me:

"You make the allegation that 'zoos by and large are operating today with all the insensitivity and neglect that prevailed a century ago,'" scolds Ronald L. Blakely, president of the American Association of Zoological Parks and Aquariums (AAZPA), at Oglebay Park, Wheeling, W. Va. (I put a knock on a New York zoo recently.)

"This statement is simply not true nor is the one, 'There has been much less zoo expertise revealed than even human prison reform.'" Such generalizations smack of journalistic irresponsibility and do a grave injustice to the hundreds of competently administered zoological parks.

"The AAZPA is working diligently to improve zoo habitats, the professional competence of zoo personnel, zoo breeding programs, and animal health facilities. We are as concerned about the zoos in New York as you are, but it is unfair and unfactual to make the assertions that you have about U.S. zoos in general. The AAZPA and its members pioneered in saving endangered species long before the Congress of the United States and some humanitarians became concerned.

"I believe that we are entitled to a column from you that explains our position, or progress and one that does not mislead the 100 million people who visit zoos in this country every year, nor paints the thousands of employees of this profession as being inhumane.

"May I suggest that you visit another zoo, one that is more typical and in keeping with the prevailing philosophy of zoos today?"

No thanks, sir. I live in this one.

We're beginning a month of doing good for others, hopefully. U.S. arms manufacturers, caught up in the Christmas spirit, have agreed to sell several billion dollars worth of planes, tanks, missile ships, guns and other adult toys to the one man on earth who can afford them, his majesty Faisal Ibn Abdul Aziz al Saud, king of Saudi Arabia. That's pretty expensive; it'll cost Faisal, who has 17 children, nearly a week of oil profits.

Then there's another effort on the part of the U.S., but somewhat smaller. It is being made by a fellow you never heard of, name of Roger Hord.

Well, Roger Hord used to be a journeyman bricklayer in Portland, Ore. He was doing real good — most bricklayers do — when he got the Call. He heard it loud and clear. He joined the Peace Corps. That was 1961, and he was 24. He served three years overseas with the corps, then went back to Portland for more schooling at Portland State University, then dropped out to join the American Job Corps in its training of disadvantaged boys.

In 1971, at 34, Hord joined CARE, that down-to-earth international aid and development agency, and was dispatched to what was then East Pakistan. Darn near got himself killed

Business World

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Big inventories and debt, obsolete plants and the high level of inflation are among the factors making the current recession seem more ominous than any other since the Great Depression of the 1930s.

The inventory problem has been highly publicized, and with good reason. Until it is reduced production must be curtailed. In September, manufacturing and trade stocks rose 1.8 per cent, but sales fell 0.3 per cent.

As a consequence, the ratio of inventory to sales rose to 1.5, the highest level in more than two years. That's for industry in general; individual companies and industries have far higher rates.

The automotive giants, whose fortunes are felt by thousands of suppliers and hundreds of thousands of workers in glass, rubber, plastics, textiles and dozens of other businesses, have especially large inventories.

Chrysler Corp., for example, has four months' supply of cars based on recent sales experience, and with consumers showing resistance to high prices there is no certainty that the supply is only that much.

As the economy recedes, Americans are further dragged down by the weight of a huge pile of debt, personal and business. About $898 billion has been added since the end of 1970, making the total more than $3 trillion.

Of this, individuals and non-corporate enterprises owed $857.5 billion at midyear, up from $586.3 billion in 1970 and only $263.3 billion in 1960.

Corporate debt has risen more than 48 per cent since 1970 and now is close to $1.5 trillion, matched against only $100 billion at the close of World War II and $543 billion as recently as 1965.

Never been anything like the likes of Hord.

But then there's never been any organization that cared more than CARE cares.

Cheer up a bit, if you think all is lost and we won't survive to break another turkey wishbone:

"It is a gloomy moment in the history of our country.

"Not in the lifetime of most men has there been so much grave and deep apprehension; never has the future seemed so incalculable as at this time.

"The domestic situation is in chaos. Our dollar is weak throughout the world. Prices are so high as to be utterly impossible.

"The political cauldron seethes and bubbles with uncertainty. Russia hangs as usual like a cloud, dark and silent, upon the horizon. It is a solemn moment. Of our troubles, no man can see the end."

The editorial in your paper today? Nope, it's from Harper's Weekly, just about this time of year — 1857!

Today In History

Today is Monday, Dec. 2, the 336th day of 1974. There are 29 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1942, a nuclear chain reaction was demonstrated for the first time by scientists working on a secret project at the University of Chicago.

On this date—

In 1804, Napoleon Bonaparte crowned himself Emperor of France.

In 1956, Fidel Castro and a band of followers landed in Cuba to try to overthrow the Batista government.

In 1960, the head of the Anglican Church, the Archbishop of Canterbury, broke church precedent by visiting Pope John XXIII at the Vatican.

Ten years ago: Pope Paul VI flew to Bombay, India to attend the International Eucharistic Congress and was greeted by a crowd of one million.

Five years ago: Fifty-four persons perished in a flash fire in a home for the aged at Notre Dame du Lac, Quebec.

One year ago: The U.S. Senate, meeting in its first Sunday session in 112 years, failed to break a filibuster that was blocking legislation to extend the government's debt limit and finance presidential campaigns with public funds.

Today's birthdays: Actress Julie Harris is 49. Actress Maggie Smith is 40.

Thought for today: There is many a good man to be found under a shabby hat — Chinese proverb.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Every year there is a great deal of confusion in the minds of many people about the need for influenza injections.

Public Health officials and hospital administrators believe that it is important to immunize people in the so-called "high risk" group.

When influenza does strike, the severity of the disease is great, and any protection that can be offered is beneficial.

Those considered members of the "high risk" group are:

1 — Patients with chronic disease of the lungs. Chronic bronchitis and emphysema are included in this group.

2 — Patients with chronic heart conditions, especially those who have a history of rheumatic heart disease.

3 — Patients with chronic metabolic conditions and those with diabetes.

4 — The elderly, the infirm, the undernourished and the chronically ill.

The vaccine being used this year is a "bivalent" influenza vaccine. It contains a new type of influenza virus.

A single dose is recommended this year. Individuals allergic to egg protein should call this to the attention of their doctors. The possibility of an adverse reaction in these people is based on the fact that the vaccine is prepared in an egg medium.

It is recommended that the vaccine be given no later than the middle of December.

The decision to immunize children depends entirely on the judgment of the doctor in each individual case.

It is expected that some protection against influenza can start within 10 days after the vaccine is given. Full protection can occur in two to three weeks.

Some people refuse to take this important vaccine because they insist that "last time I caught a cold anyway." Readers should remember that a cold is not influenza. Vaccination is meant to protect against the serious disease of influenza, and not against the common cold.

The courthouse took on the festive air of Christmas spirit . . . and competition. A discrepancy was noted in the annual contest to see who received the spirit first. The engineering department claimed the award, but the county recorder's office said their decorations were put up on a Saturday.

Louis McCullough, defensive coordinator of Ohio State's football team, was to be the main speaker at the Circleville High School winter sports banquet.

Some gridders named to the All-Ohio Class AA football team included Doug France, Rick Gales, Rocco Rich, Steve Ault, Rick Middleton, David Hazel, Elmer Lippert, and Vic Koegel.

The heating system in Municipal Court was an ingenious device. It was an ordinary fan mounted on two upside down trash cans and a window screen to circulate the heat from the gas furnace along the south wall.

Food Prices Up Around World

WASHINGTON (AP) — Retail food prices advanced steadily in 15 world capitals during September and October, with Brazilian prices running 41.9 per cent above autumn 1973 levels to lead the list, the Agriculture Department reports.

The comparisons, published in this week's issue of Foreign Agriculture magazine, are regularly compiled by the department to show that foodprice inflation in the United States is less severe than in other nations.

The index shows that for September and October U.S. food prices were up 11.2 per cent from a year before, with those in Japan up 26.2 per cent, Italy 21.6 per cent, Mexico 21.3 per cent, Great Britain 17.3 per cent, Canada 15.7 per cent and France 12.6 per cent.

West Germany and Belgium, with 3.8 and 3.9 per cent hikes, were the lowest on the list in the year-to-year comparison. Denmark, the Netherlands and Sweden also had increases less than those in the United States.

Had Everything

By JIM BISHOP

Happy holiday, Grandma. A happy holiday to you . . .

She does not see me at first. The face is pale against the pillow. The closed eyes are oysters. The mousey hair is matted. On the window behind her, old snow peeks into the institution.

It is pointless to awaken Grandma. She understands some things. Others make her smile. She is 78 — not old if one is firm of heart and spirit, and if someone needs you.

Grandma has been in this big barracks room with other old ladies for five years and seven months. Except for a fibrillating heart, she is not sick. Two married daughters chip in to keep her here.

At one time, they may have wanted Grandma home with them. But that time is past. Their husbands are busy, successful men. Over and over, they have maintained that they have their lives to live—Grandma had hers.

They're right. Who can stand a nervous old woman endlessly playing games with little ones, combing the hair of their dolls, kissing their hurt knees and cackling at childish stories? Nobody.

She awakened. Fright showed in her eyes. She fears new faces. I told her I was a writer. Grandma kept looking behind me at the supervisor. I got a chair. The boss lady shrugged and walked away.

The place is full of grandmas and grandpas. I would put the word "great" in front of both words, but there is nothing great about these people. They are consumers, not producers.

The things they do best is forget, get sick, complain and pray. They sleep well all day. At night they itch and scratch and they cannot explain the terror which crawls over the windowsill.

Grandma was overly polite. She was smiling and her dentures clacked when nothing funny had been said. She fenced and called me "son," though my hair is whiter than hers. Why would I want to write about her? An ugly old lady, a nothing. My eyes traced the heavy blue veins on the backs of her palsied hands.

She fluttered like a pecking bird about to take wing. Later, when she trusted me, she asked for a screen. She tottered from behind it in a housedress, Indian moccasins and pins sticking from her hair.

Grandma was a portrait of pallid decay. She sat, bending forward, hands clasped over her knees, and told me that age is a bad business. "Nervous," she murmured. "What have I got to be nervous about?"

Night after night, she heard the sobbing of Theresa in the next bed. Grandma pulled the pillow around her ears. One night she sat up and screamed, "Shut up. For God's sake, stop it."

The floor nurse called the doctor, and he gave her a yellow pill. "I was afraid to take it," she said. "Why didn't he give it to Theresa?" She used to do needlepoint, but her spectacles are blurry. Grandma tried to give the needlepoint as gifts, but the nurses grinned and said, "You keep it."

She insisted that the greatest crime is helpless age. "There is no cure," she said solemnly. "You come in here. You never get out. Funny, when I was young, I never wondered what it would be like to be old."

It is difficult to relate the old yellow photo in her night table to the crone on the chair. The one in the photo has big eyes and a moon-like face reminiscent of Boop-a-Doop Helen Kane. The hair is shiny jet and there is naughty promise in the small smile.

We talked all afternoon. Once she had lots of boyfriends. Her pick. She had clothes, "more than a young girl should have." Her mother was a natural born baker—could bake anything. Her father was fat and had a big mustache and jiggled her on his knee.

She married a good man, "a little stern, a little too serious, but good." There were two little girls. They had a house with a mortgage, a car, and one of the first radios "with a cat's whisker, you remember?"

"That's the trouble," she said, slapping both knees. "You see, that's the trouble. When I had everything, I didn't think about it. Now I have nothing, nobody, that's all I think about. The mind becomes foolish, I guess."

I got ready to leave. The notes were folded. "You fave a family, son?" I nodded. "A perfect wife and four daughters." "Ah," she said, "you should think about that. Think," she said, hesitating and clenching a small white fist, "about how rich you are. That's it. Rich."

I offered money. She refused. "Where would I spend it?" she said. "Buy a surprise for your wife." At the door, the nurse smiled. "You got guts, mister," she said. "That one is nuts. She prays for God to come and take her."

Happy holiday, Grandma. A happy holiday to you . . .

Cicely Tyson's

Property Stolen

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Cicely Tyson has lost about $35,000 in jewelry and furs in the burglary and ransacking of her Manhattan duplex apartment, police report.

They said the apartment in a Fifth Avenue building was burglarized sometime between Friday night and Saturday morning while no one was there. An employee of Miss Tyson discovered the burglary.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Same Man Five Times

DEAR ABBY: That letter from "Fourth Time Around," who asks what her chances for success are with the same mate has prompted me to write.

I am an authority on the subject, having married the same man FIVE times.

The first time we were married we were just kids-16 and 17. Over a period of 38 years we were divorced and remarried five times. (We're divorced now.)

We couldn't live without each other. It was like a sickness. We were a couple of neurotics who needed each other to fight with. God, how we suffered! And our children suffered, too. I'm better off without him. At least there are no more bloody noses and broken dishes.

HAID IT IN ATLANTA
DEAR ABBY: I married Ed twice. After 19 years I decided that I'd be better off alone. I had my choice of five "grounds" (Marge, Nancy, Lucille, Peggy or Helen.)

Ed had done very well in business, and my lawyer got me a really good settlement. Two years later Ed started to court me. It was like old times-flowers, dinner dates, the whole bit. Like a fool I fell for it and married him again.

It didn't take me long to realize that he was in big trouble at the bank and he only married me for my money. He didn't treat me any better the second time than he did the first, so I divorced him again, but it cost me a bundle.

The only ones who came out ahead on the deal were the lawyers.

BROKE IN BEVERLY HILLS

DEAR ABBY: I've been up to bat SEVEN times, but Number One, Three, Five and Seven were the same man. (I had three different husbands in between.)

Everybody thought we were crazy, and maybe we were, but each time we married somebody else we realized how much we loved each other. (My husband had only two other wives.)

This times it's going to last. He's 77 and I'm 76.

TOGETHER IN SUN CITY

DEAR ABBY: "Fourth Time Around" must be crazy. I made the same mistake twice, and that was enough for me.

I always say, "A new broom sweeps clean."

13 Deaths Recorded On Ohio Highways

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The heavy weekend snow, coupled with the lower speed limits, may have proved a blessing for Ohio motorists, who recorded their lowest Thanksgiving weekend traffic death count in more than a decade.

The Ohio Highway Patrol reported that 13 persons died across the state during the 102-hour holiday period. That compares with predictions that 25 would die and the 27 deaths recorded last year, which then was the lowest in more than 10 years.

The patrol said its records did not go back far enough to determine how many years it has been since as few as 13 have died over a Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

In 1968 the state counted 52 traffic deaths over the Thanksgiving weekend.

This weekend's worst accident was Sunday in Richland County when a mother and her four-month-old daughter died as the car in which they were riding collided with a train.

The holiday traffic count began at 6 p.m. Wednesday and ended at midnight Sunday.

The dead:

President Pays Tribute To Elder

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford has paid tribute to golfer Lee Elder, the first black man to qualify for the Masters Tournament.

At a testimonial dinner Sunday to the 40-year-old golfer, with whom Ford has played golf, the president said Elder had "a great accomplishment" in sports. He said he would be watching the Masters next April 10 and "pulling for Lee."

"I don't think many people will remember 1975 as the year that Jerry Ford was president," Ford said. "But they will remember that 1975 was the year that Lee Elder won the Masters."

Elder responded: "If he said I'm going to win—I can't let him down."

Demo Leadership Surprises Unlikely

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — No surprises are expected when Ohio House Democrats caucus Tuesday to elect Rep. Vernal G. Riffe Jr., D-89 New Boston, as speaker for the legislative session beginning Jan. 6.

Riffe, 49, an insurance man with eight terms behind him in the 99-member House, apparently has overwhelming support in his bid to unseat Speaker A.G. Lancione, D-99 Bellaire, who has held the job the past two years.

Lancione, after reports that Riffe had 53 pledges from among the 59 Democrats who will control the chamber, launched an 11th hour bid for speaker pro tem—the No. 2 job now held by Riffe—but there was no evidence he succeeded.

Riffe said he was remaining out of the fray for the other leadership posts, all sought by men who backed him in the early days the leadership campaign more than two months ago.

Rep. Barney Quilter, D-47 Toledo, one of the first to announce his support for Riffe, is seeking to move up to speaker pro tem from his present position of majority floor leader.

The leading candidate to replace Quilter in his present job is Rep. William L. Mallory, D-23 Cincinnati, who currently is the assistant majority floor leader.

Mallory would join Sen. M. Morris Jackson, D-21 Cleveland, to give the legislature its highest ranking team of black leaders in history. Jackson was picked at a Democratic caucus Nov. 20 to be the assistant majority leader of the Senate.

Rep. Patrick A. Sweeney, D-6 Cleveland, who currently holds no leadership post, is a candidate to move in as the Democratic House whip. That position was vacated by Richard F. Celeste, D-5 Cleveland, elected Nov. 5 as Ohio's lieutenant governor.

Meanwhile, deposed Senate Democratic Leader Anthony O. Calabrese, D-22 Cleveland, said he plans to go ahead with his plans to call a meeting of Senate Democrats Dec. 9 to reopen the fight for the leadership of that chamber.

Calabrese apparently was ousted when his present assistant, Sen. Oliver Ocasek, D-27 Akron, called the Nov. 20 caucus and was elected majority leader by 17 of the 21 Democrats who will sit in the next Senate.

The 18-year Senate veteran from Cleveland said his caucus is still on, and that he wants the senators who voted for Ocasek to "look me in the eye." Some of the Ocasek supporters said they were undecided about attending the Calabrese caucus.

Miss Vicki Said On Welfare Roll

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP) — Singer Tiny Tim's estranged wife, "Miss Vicki," has been on the New Jersey welfare rolls since August, the Philadelphia Sunday Bulletin says.

The newspaper quoted a Camden County welfare office employee as saying "Miss Vicki," whose maiden name is Victoria Budinger, has received $235 a month since Aug. 28. She reportedly is now in England with the couple's 3-year-old daughter, Tulip.

She and Tiny Tim were married in 1969 on Johnny Carson's "Tonight" show before a television audience of 45 million and were separated last January. Tiny Tim's road manager, Jim Cappy, said he doubted Miss Vicki was on welfare. "Tiny is sending her money," Cappy said. "He sends her enough money for the baby every month."

The bridge with the widest roadway is the Crawford Street Bridge in Providence, R.I., with a width of 1,147 feet.

Toledo Girl Miss Teen America

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Karen Margaret Petersen, 17, of Toledo, Ohio, the new Miss Teenage America, had Sunday that in the aftermath of the Watergate scandal she had not lost faith in the democratic system but she believes there is much room for improvement in the nation's government.

At her first news conference since being crowned Saturday night, she expressed a view that she has a responsibility to reflect the views of the nation's teen-agers.

"Miss Teenage America is supposed to be a catalyst," Miss Petersen said, adding that she must talk with more teenagers to find out their views. Referring to the women's rights movement, she said, "I personally love having doors opened for me and having chairs pulled out."

She said such amenities should not be sacrificed for the sake of sexual equality but she does believe in equal pay for equal work.

Miss Petersen said she had not expected to be among the eight semifinalists, much less the winner, adding she started to feel the joy of her victory Sunday morning "when my heart skipped a few beats."

She said she probably would delay her college enrollment until the winter quarter.

Her ambition is to obtain a law degree with a background in science, and, perhaps, handle cases involving underwater zoning or drilling rights for new sources of energy.

Miss Peterson, a ballet student for 12 years, did an original dance in ballet form on a scarecrow set.

She said it was "very doubtful" that she would ever enter the Miss America Pageant, explaining, "That's more of a beauty pageant, and this is not my kind of thing."

More factors are involved in choosing a Miss Teenage America, she added.

She said candidates-at-large for the Miss Teenage America pageant are not allowed to submit pictures in which they are wearing swim suits. Miss Peterson was one of the five candidates-at-large who entered the contest individually because no franchised pageant leading to the national contest is held in their localities.

Miss Petersen, a high school honor student, has light brown hair, hazel eyes, weighs 114 pounds and stands 5-foot-6.

Runnersup included Beth Ann Simmons of San Jose, Calif., first alternate; Margaret Elaine "Peggy" Skomal of Redlands, Calif., second alternate; and Mary Whize McDonald of Newport, Ark., third alternate.

OUR PRICING POLICY

Our customers receive the benefit of the lowest possible prices for the longest period of time possible through our "no price re-mark" policy.

Prices of items already on the shelves are not increased although new shipments of the same products may come into the stores at new higher prices.

Lower priced items are moved to the front of the shelves so customers have the opportunity of buying these first. As prices increase, the higher price is stamped only on items used to restock shelves.

Customers immediately benefit from any price decreases. When a new shipment of a product comes into the stores at a new low price, all items, including those on the shelf marked at a higher price, are marked with the lower price.

Items sold as specials are the only exceptions to the new pricing policy. Any item that is not sold during the period when it is marked at a special low price is re-marked at the usual selling price.

We feel this policy helps our customers who are concerned about rapidly rising prices.

Anyone who has any questions about our pricing policy may call Betty Brown, consumer consultant, at 614-221-5361, or write Betty Brown c/o Big Bear Stores Co., 770 W. Goodale Blvd., Columbus, Ohio, 43212

Terrorists Slay Worker In Israel

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Israeli officials said two of Yasir Arafat's Al Fatah guerrillas made the latest terrorist raid on an Israeli frontier village, in which a Moslem factory worker was killed and his wife wounded.

"There is a competition between Arafat and the other organizations over who will kill more Israelis," Defense Minister Shimon Peres said Sunday at the funeral of Subhi Mussa, slain in the raid at midnight Saturday.

Peres promised the mourners at Rihaniya, a Moslem village near the Lebanese border, the government will do "everything possible" to end such attacks. Peres said Arab guerrillas attempted three raids that failed in the last month, and the Israeli military command said five Arab invaders were killed on the Lebanese border during the weekend.

The two gunmen who raided Rihaniya surrendered to Israeli soldiers an hour and a half after they knocked at the door of Mussa's cottage and riddled him and his wife with automatic rifle shots when he opened the door. He was 37 and returned two weeks ago from military reserve service.

The Mussas' three children were unharmed.

Israeli military sources said the two terrorists planned to take hostages and exchange them for prisoners of the Israelis, including the Greek Catholic archbishop of Jerusalem, Msgr. Hilarion Capudji. He is held on charges of smuggling arms to Arab guerrillas in Israel.

Former Premier Golda Meir told a meeting of Jewish leaders in London that the Arabs' denial of their oil to the United States, Western Europe and Japan will not force Israel to give in to the Palestinian guerrillas.

"Israel will not allow terrorism, barbarity and injustice to rule us out of our natural right to sovereignty and liberty," said Mrs. Meir, who was en route to the United States.

Pennsylvania Battles Snow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Storm and heavy snow warnings were issued for much of Pennsylvania today as the season's first winter-like storm brought snow and high winds to much of the state.

The National Weather Service issued warnings for wide areas late Sunday night as the storm left heavy wet snow in western portions of the state, stranding motorists heading home from Thanksgiving weekend trips.

In Somerset County, at least nine inches of snow had fallen by midnight Sunday and the National Guard opened its armory there for at least 100 travelers. Scores of other motorists from at least 15 different states were reported seeking refuge in area churches.

State police reported traffic on the Pennsylvania Turnpike was moving late Sunday, but said a travelers' warning was in effect for today and that conditions would become hazardous in the western sector.

Children Play With Matches; Cause Fire

A call at 1:30 p.m. Saturday sent Circleville firemen to the John Conrad residence at 523 S. Scioto St.

It was reported to the crew of firemen on the scene that children playing with matches in an old shed on the back of the lot had caused the fire.

Estimated damages done by the blaze was $25.

Mills Helping Out 'Argentine Hillbilly'

BOSTON (AP) — Rep. Wilbur D. Mills says he's going to make his "protégé," stripper Fanne Foxe, a movie star with a film he wrote himself called "It's Not Burlesque."

And he has gotten himself into a flap with actress Shirley MacLaine after calling her a flop.

The Arkansas Democrat made a weekend trip to Boston where Miss Foxe, whom he called "my little Argentina hillbilly," closed out a two-week engagement. He appeared briefly on stage with her Saturday night and later said, "This won't ruin me. Nothing can ruin me."

"I've been an angel to a lot of people," Mills said Sunday in an Associated Press interview. In stating he was going to make a star of Miss Foxe, he said, "She's better than Gypsy Rose Lee."

The chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee said he had launched the careers of 14 or 15 performers but he declined to name them. "I'm always interested in a piece of property. The last one flopped. Shirley MacLaine flopped," he said. He would not explain the statement or say if he had sponsored Miss MacLaine.

Miss MacLaine's personal secretary said the actress denied ever having anything to do with him.

Mills also said in the interview that he had written a take-off on former President Richard M. Nixon which he has submitted to Lew Wasserman of Universal City in California. Wasserman could not be reached for comment. He is chairman of the board of MCA, Inc., the parent firm of Universal Pictures, Universal Television and Decca Records.

Mills has had contact with the film community. Last year he appeared at an industry meeting at Universal and offered hope to the filmmakers for tax relief.

Mills, who appeared Sunday to have trouble with his balance and asked for a chair while being photographed, said he was under heavy sedation for a heart condition. He said it was his second attack.

The interview in the bare, brightly lit dressing room was conducted in the presence of Miss Foxe, 38, and her estranged husband, Eduardo Battistella. "This is Miss Foxe's husband, who's my best friend," Mills said. "He came at my request."

Battistella said he had flown from Washington Friday with Mills in a private airplane.

Asked about Mills' apparent attachment to her, Miss Foxe said, "He has never enjoyed life. He's been all the time in politics ... People need companionship and need friends and they aren't easy to come by."

General Among Dead

WASHINGTON (AP) — Retired Brig. Gen. Roscoe C. Cartwright, 55, one of the Army's senior black officers, was killed in the Trans World Airlines plane that crashed in Virginia Sunday, a Pentagon spokesman said. Cartwright and his wife, Gloria, boarded the flight in Columbus, Ohio. Cartwright was born in Kansas City and began his service with the Army in January 1941.

Columbus HUD Staffers Killed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Nine staff members of the local Housing and Urban Development Department on their way to a training session in Washington D.C. were among those killed Sunday in a Trans World Airlines crash at Upperville, Va.

The nine were among the 46 persons who got on board the aircraft when it made a stop in Columbus about 9:30 a.m. Flight 514 originated in Indianapolis, Ind. an hour earlier en route to Washington.

All 92 persons on board were killed when the plane slammed into a wooden slope about 20 miles from Washington after being diverted from one area airport because of poor weather conditions.

An FBI agent who was with Mrs. William Saxbe of Mechanicsburg, wife of the U.S. attorney general, and the president of a local firm and his son died, airline lists show.

Miss Sheila Regan, 30, an FBI agent who had been traveling with Mrs. Saxbe and returning to Washington died in the crash. Mrs. Saxbe was not on board.

TWA was still determining hometowns and ages on most of the victims of the crash.

Robert J. Currie, 44, president of the Corrugated Container Corp. of Columbus and his 17-year-old son, Robert, a student, were killed.

The flight engineer, Thomas Safranek, 31, based in Los Angeles, was a former Columbus, Ohio resident. Safranek was a graduate of North High School and Ohio State University.

The nine HUD staff members were Mattie Jones, 46; Kathleen Farrell, 48; Rita Shelton, 34; Mary Beth Graves, 32; Fred Lorenz, 26; Betty Whitehead, 38; Annie Killinesworth, 25; Terry Meehan, 27, and Marleen Jackson, 27.

Jury Trial Settled With Negotiated Plea

After two witnesses had given testimony Friday in the criminal case set for trial by jury, the jurors were dismissed and the case settled. The jury had been seated to hear evidence in the case charging Virgil Monroe Detty, Chillicothe, with receiving stolen property, namely an air compressor which had been stolen from Buckeye Mart on July 4.

Detty was represented during the trial by attorney Val B. Mowery Jr. who entered into negotiations with county prosecutor Richard L. Gerhardt after the trial had begun.

As a result of the negotiations with the defense, Gerhardt recommended to the court that the value on the property be stipulated at less than $150 thus making the offense a misdemeanor instead of a felony.

The jury was then dismissed and Detty entered a guilty plea to both the misdemeanor and a second charge filed on the same day as the trial was set. Gerhardt brought Detty before the court on a bill of information charging him with failure to report a crime and the court proceeded with the sentencing on both the charges.

For the first charge, Judge William Ammer sentenced Detty to 90 days in the Pickaway County Jail and fined him $25. He then suspended all of the jail sentence except three days.

Detty was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail for the offense of failing to report a crime. Judge Ammer also suspended the second jail sentence and placed Detty on probation for a period of 18 months on each of the two charges.

Jurors who were seated to hear the case were Raymond W. Hedges, Larry W. McDaniel, Omer Erton Crego, Larry G. Bigam, Arthur E. Founds, Dale Leroy Funk, Connie L. Shaeffer, John W. O'Donnell, Daniel M. Brown, Margaret A. Brasgalla, Mary Belle Speakman and Doris L. Warner. Betty Jane Sowers was selected as an alternate juror.

Ehrlichman Seeks Delay In Trial

WASHINGTON (AP) — Defendant John D. Ehrlichman's lawyer asked today that the Watergate cover-up trial be recessed over the Christmas holidays in hope that the delay would make it possible to obtain testimony from former President Richard M. Nixon.

Ehrlichman's lawyer, William S. Frates, proposed to U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica that the jury be sent home Dec. 23 or 24 and then return next month in time for Nixon to give a deposition at his estate in San Clemente, Calif.

Three court-appointed doctors said Friday that complications from the phlebitis in Nixon's left leg would prevent him from giving even limited trial testimony by deposition until Jan. 6.

Even then, the doctors said, the questioning should be limited to two one-hour sessions during each day of testimony.

Sirica indicated he was considering sending the jury home over the holidays.

The judge said that, if all defense lawyers agree to the proposal, they should waive any complaints about damage to their defendants rights in writing.

Sirica said he could also simply keep the jury sequestered in a downtown Washington motel until Nixon has recovered sufficiently to answer questions.

In Beckley, W. Va., Monday night, District 17 President Richard Carter said he would not speculate on whether the miners there would approve the pact. He said there was a meeting going on that would probably continue into the early morning hours that he planned to attend.

But Carl Love of Sturgis, Ky., said he thought the majority of his 560-member local would reject the contract. "I don't believe they'll go for it," he said. "The contract's just no good."

Soviets Launch Manned Craft

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union today launched a manned Soyuz spacecraft to continue preparations for next year's joint space venture with the United States, Tass reported.

The Soviet news agency said the craft, Soyuz 16, is manned by two space veterans, Col. Anatoly Filipchenko, the pilot, and the flight engineer, Nikolai Rukavishnikov.

Soyuz 16 was launched "under the Soviet program for preparation for an experimental joint flight" of a Soyuz and a U.S. Apollo rocket, the agency said.

The U.S.-Soviet venture, mainly to perfect docking techniques in space, is scheduled to begin next July 15.

Accident Victim 'Critical'

Authorities at Mt. Carmel, West Hospital, Columbus, still list Miss Florence M. (Billie) Bowers, 285 Sunset Drive, in "critical" condition in the intensive care unit as a result of a car-truck accident, at Routes 23-511, Tuesday.

According to Ohio Highway Patrolman Sgt. Ronald L. Thompson, Miss Bowers was turning left onto Route 511 when she pulled into the path of a northbound truck, driven by Glen E. Morgan, 27, Roseboro, N.C.

The accident remains under investigation.

Man Hurt In Accident

Johnny R. Walls, 18, 203 Logan St., suffered minor injuries when he lost control of his car on Pickaway St. and crashed into a parked car.

Walls was charged by city police with driving at a speed unreasonable for road conditions after the 8:10 p.m. Saturday accident. Investigating officers said the roads were snow covered and slippery.

According to the report, Walls was driving about 35 miles an hour on S. Pickaway St. when his car slid to the right. He steered the vehicle out of its skid, but the front end slid onto a parked car owned by Perry Cupp, 1231 S. Pickaway St.

After impact the Walls car came to rest in a yard at 1233 S. Pickaway St.

Ohio Digs

Roads were closed by snow and drifts from the Mississippi River to the Appalachians. Twenty-five cars piled up on the northeastern extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike in a chain-reaction accident. No serious injuries were reported.

In Maryland, police said hundreds of motorists were stranded when all major roads west of Frostburg were closed by snow.

Airports at Chicago, Cleveland and Detroit — already crowded with persons returning home from Thanksgiving vacations — were hampered further by the weather. Some flights were delayed up to two hours and others were cancelled.

Snow covered the ground from the middle Mississippi Valley to the Central and Southern Appalachians. Detroit piled up 19 inches; Akron, Ohio, 16 inches; Mansfield and Toledo, Ohio, 12 inches, and Berkeley, W. Va., 11 inches.

Storm warnings were hoisted along Lake Erie and gale warnings were up from Lake Michigan through Lake Huron. Travelers warnings were posted for possible locally heavy snow from Michigan to Maine and New Jersey and into the mountains of northern Georgia.

It was cold in the upper plains but skies were fair.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 3 at Hibbing, Minn., to 66 at Key West, Fla.

Local Officer Assists Annapolis Candidates

In this era of no-draft, more and more young men are applying to enter the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md.

Each year since 1970 more than seven thousand young men have applied to Annapolis. Last summer, the largest class in the Academy's history, 1513 young men became the Class of 1978. These men were selected from 7123 candidates who had applied to the Naval Academy.

"We have had over 7,000 candidates for the classes of 1974 through 1978, and attribute this success to the recruiting efforts of our Candidate Guidance organization, our Blue and Gold officers and alumni," according to Dean of Admissions Robert W. McNitt of the Naval Academy.

Young men between the ages of 16-21 who are interested in applying to the Naval Academy for the class entering in July, 1975 should write their congressman as soon as possible to request a nomination to Annapolis.

For information on the types of nominations available, answers to questions about admission and to initiate a file at the Naval Academy, write to: Candidate Guidance Officer, U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md. 21402. For immediate information, contact Commander Roy C. Osborn, the Blue and Gold Officer for this area, at Calvary Church, 427 S. Washington St. or phone 474-8065 or 474-2514.

As the local representative of the Naval Academy, he is familiar with all admission requirements for the Academy.

Tigers Outshoot LE, 67-56

Junior George Moore, a 6-2 center, hit 11 of 14 shots from the floor for 22 points and grabbed 12 rebounds to pace the Circleville Tigers to a 67-56 win over Logan Elm Saturday night in the McDowell gymnasium.

It was the third straight win for the Tigers, while Logan Elm dropped to 0-2 for the year.

Moore, who led the reserve Tigers in scoring and rebounding a year ago, apparently hasn't found the transition to varsity ball too difficult. He was a dynamo at both ends of the floor, blocking shots and controlling the boards.

Biff Bumgarner aided the Tigers around the basket as he grabbed five rebounds and hit five of six shots from close range for 12 points.

Mike McCoy, who came off the bench, added 12 big points and controlled the Tiger offense in the absence of Perry Hoskins who fouled out in the third period.

Logan Elm did a fine job defending Hoskins, Harold Reed, and Brent Mancini.

Reed, who had been averaging 16 points a game, was held to nine by the Braves as he connected on only three of eight shots from the floor.

Hoskins, also averaging 16 points in the first two Tiger games, hit for only nine on four of nine shots from the

Bengals See All-Out Tilt With Dolphins

MIAMI (AP)—Cincinnati's Bengals and Miami's Dolphins, both on the endangered species list in the American Football Conference's playoff scramble, face a crucial contest tonight before a national television audience.

A Cincinnati loss would all but eliminate the Bengals, now at 7-4, from the playoff picture with only two games left. And a Miami defeat could force the defending Super Bowl champions to hope for a wild card berth for their fifth straight playoff appearance.

Pittsburgh, 8-3-1, gives the Bengals a chance to win the Central Division title instead of depending on the wild card.

In the East Division, Miami is a half-game behind Buffalo, which beat Baltimore 6-0 Sunday. The Bills are 9-3, while Miami's at 8-3.

Miami Coach Don Shula, trying to reach the Super Bowl for the fourth straight year and win the National Football League's top prize for the third straight time, hopes to capitalize on Cincinnati's vulnerable rushing defense.

And Cincinnati's Paul Brown is expected to counter with a heavy passing attack against a Miami pass defense that has surrendered 156 yards a game.

Shula plans to start sore-ankled fullback Larry Csonka and now healthy Mercury Morris against the Bengals, who have been hit for 145 responds, he can go to fullback Don Nottingham and rookie star Benny Malone to balance Bob Griese's passing.

Brown will counter with the NFL's most productive passer, Ken Anderson. Anderson is averaging 26 passes and 17 completions a game, and may throw even more tonight because of injuries which have decimated the Bengal backfield. His top receivers, Isaac Curtis and Chip Myers, both have caught 29 passes.

Greg Stone of Seattle, Wash., will captain Army's 1975 golf team.

floor. And Mancini, averaging 10 points a game, was held without a field goal by the Braves.

He finished with three points at the foul line.

Scott Pontius paced Logan Elm with 19 points on seven field goals and five free throws.

But Jeff Reichelderfer, who hit for 12, was the only Brave to lend scoring support.

Mitch Martin and Mike Miller connected for eight each, Matt Martin had four, Scott Allen got three points at the foul line, and Phil Manson had two.

Reichelderfer and Miller each had six rebounds to pace the Braves 26 total rebounds.

Circleville took a two-point lead on the opening score of the game by Hoskins, but Logan Elm, shutting off the Tiger offense, quickly ran to a 10-2 lead on eight points by Pontius. But Circleville fought back behind Moore and had a 16-14 lead after the first period.

The Tigers quickly built the lead to five points in the second period and retained that margin with a 30-25 lead at the half.

In the third period, Logan Elm fought back and went ahead 37-34 with 4:08 left in the stanza. CHS changed it around to a 42-37 bulge with 2:35 left, but LE came back to close the gap to 44-40 as the final period got underway.

Midway through the final period, Logan Elm pulled to within two points, 53-51, on a basket by Reichelderfer, but Circleville salted away the win with fine movement the remainder of the period.

Circleville's pass and roll offense, clogged briefly in the first period, led the Tigers to a 57 per cent shooting night as they canned 27 of 47 shots from the floor.

However, the Tigers made only 13 of 24 shots from the foul line for a 60 per cent average.

Logan Elm, blistering the nets in the first period, cooled off to connect on only 23 of 61 shots for 37 per cent. The Braves hit 10 of 20 free throws.

Circleville returns to SCOL action Friday when they make the trip to Unioto. Saturday, they travel to Teays Valley to play the Vikings, 2-0 on the year with an impressive 68-53 win over Logan Elm in the opener.

The Braves, playing one game a weekend so far, will be at Amanda-Clearcreek Friday night for the Mid-State opener for both schools.

CHS Reserves Come Back To Nip LE

Circleville's reserve cagers won their most impressive game of the year, a 35-33 come-from-behind win over Logan Elm in Saturday's preliminary game.

It was the second straight win for the Tigers, who are 2-1 on the year. Logan Elm dropped to 1-1.

Logan Elm battled to a 9-4 lead after one quarter of play and held a commanding 23-6 advantage at the half.

Coach Dennis Stewart's reserve cagers fought their way back into the game in the third period, trailing 29-22 as the final period began.

Circleville finally tied the game for the first time with 2:50 left when Tom Taylor connected on a jump shot.

And after both teams missed several shots, the Tigers grabbed the lead with 2:19 to play when Frank Merrill canned two free throws.

Logan Elm tied the game at 33-all three seconds later with two free throws, but Taylor won it in the final minute and a half with a short jumper.

Merrill paced the Tigers with 12 points on three field goals and six foul shots.

Brian Fath scored nine points, Taylor hit for eight, and Brian Price, Rusty Holbrook, and Tom McGuire had two points each.

Randy Pontious scored eight points to lead the Braves. Mark Skinner and Dave Dean had six each, Eric Maxson, and Mike Patrick had two, and Chuck Cave hit a foul shot.

Westfall Balance Rips Millersport

Westfall, getting balanced scoring and good defensive efforts for its 12-member squad, ran its season record to 2-1 with a 69-38 win over Millersport on the Mustang floor Saturday.

It was the second game for Mike Eckle's crew in as many nights.

Chris Riddle paced the Mustang attack with 15 points on three field goals and nine foul shots.

Bill Hamman and Mack Dick had eight points each, Brad Beatty, Terry Hanson, and Kevin Reid had seven each, Randy Hildenbrand had five, Jeff Karshner and John Schleich had four each, and Doug Williams and Greg Varney had two each.

High scorer for Millersport was Largent, who hit five field goals and 13 free throws for 23 points.

The Mustangs hit 38 per cent from the floor, while Millersport, in its first game, shot a dismal nine field goals in 45 attempts.

Big story in the game was rebounding as the Mustangs pulled off 76 errant shots.

Mack Dick, who played in only two and a half quarters, had 18 rebounds, Riddle had 11, Karshner had nine, Williams and Varney had seven each, and Hildenbrand had six.

Getting "good shooting," Westfall pulled to an 18-10 first period lead, 34-22 halftime margin, and 55-27 lead after three periods.

Coach Eckle's crew used four defenses in the game and also employed an effective press.

"It was a good team effort, and especially good effort by the players we used from the bench," he said.

The Mustangs will have their hands full this weekend, as they play back-to-back Scioto Valley Conference teams.

Friday the Mustangs travel to Paint Valley and Saturday they host Southeastern.

Oklahoma, Alabama Grid Powers

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer
Southern California, the 1972 national champion, and Notre Dame, the 1973 national champion, provided a fitting wind-up to college football's bizarre regular season Saturday, with the result that neither team is likely to be the 1974 national champion. Notre Dame's successor undoubtedly will be either Oklahoma, No. 1 in The Associated Press poll, or runner-up Alabama. Both are 11-0—the only teams with perfect records. But Oklahoma, on probation and ineligible for a postseason appearance, has completed its campaign while Alabama must face a frustrated Notre Dame squad in the Orange Bowl.

"There are only two undefeated teams left now," Oklahoma Coach Barry Switzer said Saturday after his Sooners packed it in for 1974 by turning back Oklahoma State's strong challenge 44-13 thanks to a 28-point fourth quarter. "I saw the other one (Alabama) play on television Friday and I believe we are the better team. I know we are a more physical team."

In the game Switzer saw, Alabama held off No. 7 Auburn 17-13 and wound up its regular season with a fourth straight Southeastern Conference crown.

The national championship will be decided after the bowl games by the sports writers and sportscasters who vote in The AP poll.

Meanwhile, sixth-ranked Southern California ended Notre Dame's hopes of repeating as national champ Saturday with an incredible rally that erased a 24-0 deficit and lifted the Trojans to an amazing 55-24 rout of fifth-ranked Notre Dame after they trailed 24-0 late in the first half. It was Notre Dame's worst licking since a 59-0 mauling by Army in 1944 and the worst defeat in Ara Parseghian's 11 years as coach.

Even worse, it was the second setback for the defending national champs and, since they're probably out of the championship picture, all it left them with is the possibility of ending Alabama's dream of the No. 1 spot for the second year in a row.

Also on Friday, No. 17 Texas trounced eighth-ranked Texas A&M 32-3, dousing the Aggies' Cotton Bowl hopes and sending Baylor against 10th-ranked Penn State in Dallas on Jan. 1.

With its Cotton Bowl berth secure, Baylor, 16th in The AP ratings, clinched an outright Southwest Conference championship Saturday by whipping Rice 24-3. On Thursday night, Penn State whipped No. 18 Pitt 31-10.

Houston was the only other Top Twenty team in action over the weekend and the 15th-ranked Cougars, headed for the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl, were stunned 30-14 by Tulsa's Missouri Valley champs.

But the game that capped the holiday weekend football binge was Southern Cal's fantastic rally, led by Notre Dame-killer Anthony Davis' four touchdowns, including a 100-yard romp with the second-half kickoff that swung the tide the Trojans' way.

"The kickoff was the main turning point," said Notre Dame Coach Ara Parseghian.

The Irish rolled up a 24-0 lead before Davis scored on a sevenyard pitch from Pat Haden 10 seconds before halftime to make it 24-6. Following his long kickoff return—the sixth of his career, an NCAA record—Davis added touchdown runs of six and four yards and a two-point conversion dash before the third period was over, lifting the Trojans into a 27-24 lead.

Haden fired scoring passes of 18 and 45 yards to Johnny McKay, capping a wild 35-point period, and Southern Cal scored twice more in the final quarter on Haden's fourth scoring pass—a 16-yarder to Shelton Diggs—and Charles Phillips' 58-yard interception return.

The four touchdowns gave Davis 11 in three scraps with Notre Dame. He destroyed the Irish with a six-touchdown spree two years ago.

"Yes," Parseghian said, "the momentum did shift on that kickoff return by Davis. Then we had the punt return, then the fumble and then..."

It hurt too much to go on.

Oklahoma trailed Oklahoma State 13-10 until Grant Burget's four-yard scoring run in the third period broke the dam. Steve Davis tallied on a one-yard run to start the fourth-period deluge. Joe Washington scored on a 57-yard punt return and a five-yard run and freshman Elvis Peacock darted 10 yards to wrap it up.

On Friday, Alabama jumped to a 10-0 lead over Auburn on Willie Shelby's 45-yard run with a screen pass from Richard Todd and Bucky Berrey's 36-yard field goal. Calvin Culliver's 13-yard run made it 17-7 in the third period and the Crimson Tide held on the rest of the way.

Milwaukee Bucks Top 76ers, 117-112

By BOB GREENE
AP Sports Writer
What a difference a Kareem makes. The Milwaukee Bucks struggled through their first 14 games, losing 13, while Kareem Abdul-Jabbar recovered from a broken hand and a scratched eye. Then the towering giant returned to the lineup.

Kareem scored 29 of his 35 points in the second half as Milwaukee stopped the Philadelphia 76ers 117-112 Sunday night. It was the Bucks' sixth victory in the last seven games.

In the only other National Basketball Association game played Sunday, Connie Hawkins led the Los Angeles Lakers to a 111-105 overtime victory over the Phoenix Suns.

Only one American Basketball Association was played Sunday, with Memphis crushing Utah 101-88.

Cleveland Tops 49ers In NFL, 7-0

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland Brown rookie safety Eddie Brown took a lesson from the snow and drifted into one of the most important plays of Sunday's football game.

Brown intercepted three passes and one of them set up the Browns scoring drive in the last minutes as Cleveland defeated the San Francisco 49ers 7-0 in National Football League game.

"We were in a blitz and the back I had to cover was blocking," he said. "I happened to drift into the right area."

The game was played through continuous snow, sleet and rain and not all of the mud stayed on the field.

"When I caught the ball I got mud in my eyes, both of them," Brown recalled. "I tried to get the mud out to see where I was going."

Brown went 24 yards with Tom Owen's errant pass and still had the mud in his eyes when he was dropped at the 49er 24-yard line.

Ken Brown—no relation—then helped the Browns drive with a 17 yard run, bringing the ball down to the two-yard line and two plays later he went in for the score, with 3:21 remaining.

Harvey Haddix New Indians Coach

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Harvey Haddix is a slight, bespectacled midwesterner who for the last three years has tended to his family as well as his cattle, hogs, corn, wheat and hay on his 900-acre Ohio farm.

Next year he'll return to his first love. He'll be in the Cleveland Indians bullpen giving direction to young baseball players.

"My wife wanted me home with the kids," Haddix said of his giving up coaching in 1971. "We have three children at home and she thought she needed help raising the kids."

Last month Haddix was offered the job as the Indians' pitching coach and he accepted.

Bucks 117, 76ers 112

Abdul-Jabbar, the NBA's most valuable player in three of his five seasons in the league, scored only six points in the first two periods, but spent the entire second period and the last three minutes of the first quarter on the bench in foul trouble.

Forward Bob Dandridge picked up the slack, however, scoring 19 of his 29 points during that time as Milwaukee took a 58-56 lead into intermission.

Philadelphia — with Steve Mix scoring 23 points, Billy Cunningham 21 and Fred Carter 20 — closed to 109-108 with two minutes remaining in the game, but Abdul-Jabbar's hook shot and two free throws by Dandridge and Gary Brokaw lifted the Bucks to victory.

Lakers 111, Suns 105

Phoenix came back from a five-point deficit early in the fourth period to nearly win the game in regulation time. But Charlie Scott, who's basket tied it at 99-99, missed a free throw and sent the contest into an extra session.

The Lakers then went to work with Hawkins pumping in three baskets as Los Angeles jumped ahead 109-101 and easily held on for the victory.

Elmore Smith paced the Lakers with 29 points, his season high. Rookie guard Brian Winters added 19 points to the Los Angeles total and Hawkins finished with 16.

Scott scored 26 and Dennis Awtry added 19 for the Suns.

Sounds 101, Stars 88

George Carter's 17 points in the final period turned back a Utah rally and led the Memphis Sounds to its ABA victory. Carter, who finished with 27 points and 10 rebounds, also grabbed six caroms and stole the ball in the fourth period rally.

Ron Boone led the Utah Stars with 19 points.

Ohio's Ski Areas Get Early Start

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio's ski areas, blessed with a heavy blanket of snow, are off to one of the earliest starts ever.

The cold spell which brought more than a foot of snow in some areas has allowed ski area owners to open the slopes about two weeks earlier than usual.

Sugar Creek at Dayton opened last Wednesday and Snow Trails, near Mansfield, began Friday and had more than 800 skiers Sunday.

Wolfpack Off To Good Start In Cage Wars

By FRANK BROWN
AP Sports Writer

Top-ranked North Carolina State picked up exactly where it left off last year behind a typical David Thompson performance and a more surprising one by forward Phil Spence.

Last November, the Wolfpack beat East Carolina to open a 30-1 season that led to the national championship. Saturday night, they dropped the Pirates again, 98-81, to start the 1974 ball bouncing.

"It's no disgrace to lose to the national champions by 17 points," said East Carolina Coach Dave Patton. "There's no way to defend against Thompson, as everyone knows, but Spence surprised me. I didn't think he was that good."

Thompson, last year's Player of the Year, finished the opener with 33 points—seven above his average. Spence, a 6-foot-8 junior who was the Wolfpack's sixth man last year, collected 22 points, 17 rebounds and seven blocked shots. His career average was just 6.4 going into the game.

"I always thought Phil had tremendous potential," said State Coach Norman Sloan. "I think he is going to come into his own."

Tuesday night, State meets North Carolina-Ashville.

Four ranked teams are in action tonight, with No. 6 Kansas, 1-0, hosting Augustana, S.D., No. 7 South Carolina meeting Bucknell, No. 8 Louisville visiting Houston, and 16th-ranked Kentucky, 1-0, travelling to Miami of Ohio.

UCLA's second-ranked Bruins cruised to a 79-64 victory over DePaul Saturday night for their second triumph of the young season. Rich Washington scored 20 points and Dave Meyers added 18 as UCLA broke the game open with four straight baskets just before halftime.

Hot shooting by No. 3 Indiana made it easy to dispose of Tennessee Tech, 113-60. The Hoosiers, defending Big Ten champs, took a 20-point lead before seven minutes had been played and shot .554 from the field.

It was just as easy for fourth-ranked Maryland to breeze past Richmond, 106-81, but the Terrapins lost sophomore John Lucas for at least two weeks with a cracked collar bone. He had scored 17 points before the first-half injury and still wound up as Maryland's top scorer. Richmond got 33 points from Bob McCurdy. Rick Suttle's 14 points lifted

Your Horoscope Television Schedule

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR TUESDAY

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): Do not let the unfamiliar keep you from accepting it on that basis alone. Where you carefully check for flaws and find none, invite the innovation.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May. 21): Your artistry and creativity stimulated. A time to "dress up" old ideas and methods and make them more practical.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): A potentially fine project begun recently will bog down unless you keep it in mind, mull over details, plan a tighter fitting of its "jigsaw" pieces.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): Be careful in handling personal affairs; there may be tricky areas, a few kinks to iron out before taking action. Some conflict of interests indicated.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): Avoid extremes. There's a tendency now to make mountains of molehills, to lose control of temper, emotions generally. Forewarned is forearmed!

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): Your stars warn against undue exertion, scattering energies, unwisely attempting to handle the unfamiliar. In general, stick to routine.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): Your goal now should be to capture the attention of those in a position to help you further your aims, so polish up your wares — and your personality.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23): Don't try to buck present trends or may find yourself at unhappy variance with associates who could be helpful. Scrutinize all offerings carefully.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Be flexible, but not easily turned by every wind that blows; eager to take new steps forward, but not at the cost of future losses or setbacks.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Make decisions only after careful investigation. Expend energies to elicit lasting results. Avoid the "quick return" angle: It is fraught with traps.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): You may now have the responsibility of handling another's financial affairs. Do so with care. Dependence upon you is great.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Curb a tendency toward pessimism. With good judgment and a bit of finesse you can make your outlook brighter, expand possibilities.

YOU BORN TODAY have been blessed with a high order of intellect and a truly brilliant imagination. Your ideas are always ingenious and you have the practicality needed to carry them out — a tremendous asset to any career. Endowed with quickness of perception and discriminating taste, you would make an outstanding literary or dramatic critic. In fact, you have a keen sense of drama yourself and, with your gift for brilliant writing, could shine as a playwright. This flair for drama would also be evident in a courtroom should you embrace a career as a trial lawyer. Other fields in which you excel: music, science (especially in chemistry or engineering), painting, journalism and finance. Birthdate of: Gilbert Stuart, portrait painter; Newton D. Baker, Amer. statesman; Sir Rowland Hill, author of the penny postal system; Joseph Lhevinne, world-famous Russian pianist.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — When his two sons were still in school, Lloyd Bridges never tried to dampen their enthusiasm for acting. It's no mean feat when you consider their first paid jobs were in his old "Sea Hunt" series.

The sons—Jeff, 24, and Beau, 31—have since gone on to establish successful acting careers of their own, a fact which visibly pleases Bridges the Elder.

He says he'd like all three Bridges to appear in the same movie or TV show at the same time, but the opportunity hasn't arisen. In lieu of that, he and Beau are co-starring in a CBS special.

It's "The Whirlwind," the second in a series of four 90-minute dramas based on the life and times of Benjamin Franklin.

In the Dec. 17 show, Beau Bridges plays Franklin in the latter's younger years as a journeyman printer, while Lloyd Bridges portrays the great American statesman in his middle years.

The older Bridges, here to drum up a little publicity for the show, was a bit weary, having sat up the previous night counseling Beau on the latter's role in a coming Broadway play, "Who's Who in Hell."

A native Californian whose Broadway debut came in "Othello" 37 years ago, Bridges grinned when asked if he'd ever counseled either son against the thespic life when they showed signs of having the acting bug.

"No, because I love it myself and I've always loved acting," he said. "It's a great profession, although precarious. I hated the responsibility of encouraging them because if they didn't make it—and a lot of us don't—I'd feel terrible."

"So I didn't push them hard. I just showed them what the atmosphere, what the environment was like, so if they had something I'd give them the opportunity to try."

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it: AXYDLBAAXR is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

1040 U.S. Individual Income Tax Return Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. Are any of the campaign expenses of those running for our city council or the state legislature tax deductible?

A. No. Campaign expenses of a candidate for any office are not deductible. Registration fees for primary elections are also non-deductible, even for incumbents seeking to remain in office.

Q. I formed a partnership with two other people this summer to paint houses for a living. How do we report our earnings to the IRS?

A. Partnerships pay no income tax, but they must submit an information return using Form 1065, U.S. Partnership Return of Income, showing the results of the partnership's operations for its tax year. As a partner, you must include as income on the Supplemental Income Schedule (Schedule E) of Form 1040 (U.S. Individual Income Tax Return) your distributive share, based on your partnership agreement, of earnings, gains, and losses. You have to report these items whether or not they have been distributed to you. Detailed information on partnership income is available in the IRS free Publication 541, "Tax Information on Partnership Income and Losses."

Q. I had a casualty loss recently when a thunderstorm caused a tree to fall on the roof of my garage at home. I know the damage to the garage is deductible but what about loss of the tree?

A. If ornamental trees and shrubs on residential property are damaged or destroyed by a casualty, you may have a deductible loss subject to the $100 limitation on personal casualty loss deductions. To deduct this loss, you must establish that there has been a decrease in the total value of your real estate. When you have the damage appraised, remember that the fee you pay for establishing the amount of the loss is tax deductible also.

Q. My daughter has just taken a job as a sales clerk three nights a week at a large department store. She gets a discount on merchandise she buys at the store. Is the discount a taxable fringe benefit?

A. Courtesy discounts on purchases from your daughter's employer are not income if they are of relatively small value, are offered to employees generally, and are offered merely as a means of promoting her health, goodwill or efficiency. But if she buys property from her employer at a reduced price, she must include in her income the difference between what she paid and its fair market value as additional compensation.

Miss Thornton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Thornton, 530 Greenacre Court. She is also a sophomore at OSU and is majoring in home economics.

Steel Price Hike Likely

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Steel prices appear headed for another climb, Industry Week reported today.

The business weekly says one major steel producer expects the coal industry labor settlement to add $2 per ton to the price of steel.

The steelmaker, whose prices on some products are below those of his competitors, would like to raise its prices while demand is strong, the magazine says.

Steel industry cutbacks due to the strike by coal miners probably will make December the poorest month for raw steel production since December 1971, IW predicts. Mill shipments of steel should sag similarly to the lowest level in two or three years.

Latrobe Steel Co. of Latrobe, Pa., announced prices would go up Jan. 2.

Hunt's Daughter Ignores Money

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — June Hunt, the daughter of the late billionaire oilman H.L. Hunt, says she doesn't care about money and wants to be a singer and guitarist.

Miss Hunt, 29, said in an interview that her first record, about a little blue man who keeps following a woman and says he "lubs" her, will be released this month.

Base prices on highspeed tool steel with low tungsten or cobalt content were to rise 7.5 per cent and price extras on those grades 10 per cent. A 10 per cent price increase was announced for base bar prices and for steel with more than 4 per cent tungsten or cobalt.

But predictions of other increases were necessarily hazardous due to announcement that regional leaders of the United Mine Workers union would take a contract offer to their 120,000 members, perhaps today. The four-week-old strike choked off 70 per cent of the nation's coal supply.

Shortage of soft coal forced a 50 per cent cut in coke output at U.S. Steel, and Bethlehem Steel announced it was not scheduling work for 2,600 employees in ingot mold and iron foundry operations.

Executives of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., Armco Steel Corp., Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., Wheeling-Pittsburgh Steel Corp. and National Steel Corp. had said they could hold off severe cuts until Dec. 1.

But Armco was stretching out supplies in a program which was to mean a 30 per cent cut in cokemaking Dec. 1 at Middletown, Ohio; Ashland, Ky., and Houston. Youngstown Sheet & Tube had scheduled a 4,000-ton-a-day blast furnace at Indiana Harbor, Ind., to be taken out of production for relining.

Industry Week estimated the nation's raw steel production at 2,655,000 tons last week, compared to 2,682,000 the week before.

Steelmakers forecast that 1974 mill shipments would level off at about 100 million tons, leaving the industry with orders running over into 1975. Some executives said the industry might be grateful for the backlog since they saw softening in the automotive, appliance and light construction sectors of the market.
